Moshe
Dear Rabbi Wiener,

As we look to the beginning of a new decade, I want to thank you for the manner in which you have assisted my District Office staff and me in responding to community problems, issues and questions over the past year. Your efforts on behalf of my constituents throughout 2009 is greatly appreciated and in many cases has made a positive difference in their lives.

It's important to acknowledge a job well done. I want you to know that the caring, effective and timely way in which each inquiry was handled has not gone unnoticed.

My staff and I look forward to continuing to work with you and your staff in the New Year. I know we share the common goal of making sure that the quality of life for the people who live, work and visit the district continues to improve.

May the New Year bring you and your family all that you hope for.

Happy New Year,

Steven H. Cymbrowitz
